Duke | CENTER FOR Global Mental Health

Duke & Community Sponsorships

The Duke Center for Global Mental Health invites academic departments, community organizations, advocacy groups, and nonprofits to co-sponsor the 2027 Duke Global Mental Health Conference. These sponsorships offer opportunities for visibility and collaboration as we seek to advance the cause of global mental health equity. Whether through promotion, participation, or active sponsorship, sponsors play a vital role in making the conference possible and accessible.

Sponsorship Opportunities

Global Mental Health Partner

No cost to participate

As a partner of the conference, your organization will receive:

- Placement in Program & Website: Recognition on the conference website and written inclusion in the conference program, including a brief description and clickable link.

In return, we kindly ask that you help promote the conference by:

1. Sharing or creating social media posts
2. Distributing announcements via email to your network
3. Posting event information on your website
4. Including the conference in your newsletter or member communications

GMH Collaborator

$500

Includes all Partner benefits, plus:

- Logo Recognition: Logo placement and recognition on flyers and social media posts
- Conference Recognition: Verbal acknowledgment during the conference
- Community Table: Option to display informational or promotional materials on a shared community table
- Poster Session: Guaranteed poster acceptance to share program information, research, or initiatives during the poster session (if desired)

GMH Advocate

$1,000

Includes all Collaborator benefits, plus:

- Your Own Table or Booth: Opportunity to host your own table or booth for distributing information for greater engagement and visibility
- Named Poster Award: Opportunity to give out a named poster award on a topic area of choice (e.g., “The [Organization Name] poster award for research in [topic area].”)

GMH Champion

$2,000

Includes all Advocate benefits, plus:

- Speaking Opportunity: Opportunity for brief remarks by a representative of your organization during the conference, including the option to share your mission and invite participation or support.

To become a sponsor, please email dukegmh@duke.edu with your organization’s name and the sponsorship level you are interested in.